SOME OF OUR TEACHERS

Mª Teresa González Alonso

Art History and Spanish Language teacher.
Director of Colegio de España.

I have a degree in Geography and History (Art History) from the University of Salamanca. I have been working as a teacher at Colegio de España since 1983 and, since 2005, I am the director of the school. In addition to teaching ELE (Spanish as a Foreign Language), I have taught History and Art History of Spain and Hispanic America and Traditions of Spain and Hispanic America. I am co-author of the artistic guide 'Salamanca, Patrimonio de la Humanidad' and author of several didactic materials: "Cuaderno de Ejercicios. Nivel B1", and the notebooks "Historia de España", "Historia del arte español" among others.

Carmen Pérez Sanz

Spanish Language teacher since 1990.
Colegio de España.

I have a degree in Hispanic Philology from the University of Salamanca and I have been working as a teacher of Spanish as an ELE teacher at the Colegio de España since 1990. In addition to my teaching work as an ELE teacher, I teach Spanish and Hispanic American Culture and DELE Preparatory Courses, as I am an examiner and preparer for DELE exams, accredited by the Cervantes Institute. I coordinated the prestigious literary and cultural magazine 'Cuadernos del Lazarillo' from 1992 to 2010.

Rosa Mª Casillas

Spanish Language teacher since 1989.
Colegio de España.

I have a degree in Teaching at E.G.B. (Enseñanza General Básica) and a degree in Philosophy and Educational Sciences from the University of Salamanca. I have been an ELE (Spanish as a Foreign Language) teacher at Colegio de España since 1989. I was academic coordinator of the International Summer Courses of the Colegio de España from 1991 to 1996, and of the International Secretariat Courses from 1991 to 1994. In addition to my teaching activity as an ELE teacher, I am an accredited examiner and preparer for the DELE exams by the Cervantes Institute.

Covadonga Llorente Vigil

Spanish Language teacher since 1987.
Colegio de España.

I have a degree in Hispanic Philology from the University of Salamanca, specialising in teaching Spanish to foreign students as well as training foreign teachers of Spanish. I have been an ELE (Spanish as a Foreign Language) teacher at the Colegio de España since 1986. I have taught courses aimed at Spanish teachers at the Brazilian Cultural Center - Spain of Curitiba (Brazil) and have also taught the following courses: The difficulties of Teaching Spanish to Lusophones", "The use of pronouns personal complement and grammatical values of SE" and the "Training Courses for Spanish Teachers from Brazil and the Caribbean".

I am the author of "Las perífrasis verbales" and co-author of "Los Verbos Españoles", "Ser y estar. Verbos atributivos del español", "Manual de Ortografía española"(published by the Colegio de España).

María Lavín Miguel
